Nothing but James William Husted to Remind One of the Old Days-He has Opened Hendquarters and to Giving Out Fat Cigare and Luncheon to Die Friends -The Speakership Practically Settled.

ALBANY, Jan. 2.—Here it is the Saturday before the Legislature meets and not as much political buzz as when the Aldermen in the old City Hall down in New York held their annual drawing for little offices. With the inaugura-tion of Gov. Flower and the decision of the contested election cases political interest died out. The Speaker of the Assembly and the President of the Senate of the State of New York, not to mention clerks, doorkeepers, sergeants-at-arms, and Postmasters, are to be elected, and there isn't half the fuss that the Cobleskill farmers make over selecting their representative in the Schoharie Board of Su pervisors.

When the Legislature was Republican the Senators and the Assemblymen from the rura districts came to Albany weeks beforehand dressed in their Sunday suits and carrying big gripsacks. They would sit on the sofas in the Delayan House and look on the first marble floor they had ever seen in their lives, while Lou Payn (no one ever heard his first name in full), Silas B. Dutcher, Sheridan Shook, Hum mingbird Burleigh, and the other old war horses whispered mysterious politica secrets to them. Upstairs Gen. James William Husted and his competitor would have ope Speakership headquarters. There would be open boxes of cigars, with blood-red bands stamped "Real Perfectos." The legislators had all the free cigars they wanted, and ther were bottles that nobody watched carefully where Charley Chickering used to be man aging his canvass for Clerk.

Those old days are gone. There are no Clerk's headquarters at all. No one seems to be running for President of the Senate. Senator Cantor has such a sure thing that he has not gone to the trouble of opening headquar-Dr. R. P. Bush of Chemung, who will be but the only things to show that they are headbut the only things to show that they are headquarters are three open boxes of bega de begas, without any bands at all, though the lid has a picture of a beautiful lady driving along the see coast in a one-horse phaeton.

All that is left of the old times is James William Husted. He is here for the twentysecond time. He began in 1883, and he has skipped only two years since. One of those two years he ran for a State office. He has headquarters because he cannot help it. Today he had a New Year's luncheon there, with a pot of hot coffee that no one tasted, and lote of other things, and big, fat cigars that cost twenty-five cents apiece wholesale. He did this to celebrate his breaking the Assembly record. Beginning away back in the last century, Stephen F. Carman began going to the Assembly from Queens county. He went twenty-one times, but it took him forty years, and he was Speaker once, while James William Husted has been Speaker six times, and he isn't through yet. Soveral of his friends presented him with a searfpin in honor of his breaking the record. It is a pigeon-blood ruby, surrounded with twenty-two little diamonds. It is so valuable that he does not wear it, but carries it in his pocket to show to his particular friends. But even with the free luncheon and the fat cigars there were few callers.
Sam, the General in Albany since he was a boy, is in faithful attendance. He said sadiy:
"I guess one of dem Bushes—dat Doctor Bush. I spects—gwine to be Speaker, and he's nothin' but de minerandum."

Assemblyman John Connolly felt so lonely that he opened headquarters of his own for his friends at his house, 5 Pine street, back of the jall, which in Albany is in a fashionable neighborhood.

As far as determined, Jacob A. Cantor of New York will be President of the Senate, quarters are three open boxes of bega de begas his friends at his house, o Pine street, back of the jall, which in Albany is in a fashionable neighborhood.

As far as determined. Jacob A. Cantor of New York will be President of the Senate. Bobert P. Bush of Chemung. Speaker of the Assembly, and Charles R. Defreest of Troy, Clerk of the Assembly. It is not decided who will be Clerk of the Senate. Maurice Holahan of New York could have it, but he is now deputy commissioner of Public Works, with a salary of $4,000 a year, and the Tammany leaders do not want to spare him. Walter H. Bunn of Otsego county is mentioned. He was Clerk of the Democratic State Committee. The Democrats are short of material for the important offlees, just as they are short of experienced men for committee Chairmanships. This is causing a great deal of trouble. Of the sixteen Democratic Senators only five served in the last Senate, and four of the five are from New York city. Of the Democratic Assemblymen who are redjected to large a proportion come from New York that Chairmanships by seniority of continuous service would go to New York in too great sumbers. Outside of the Committees on Cities, which will naturally go to New York and Brooklyn, the New York of Democratic leaders are asking nothing. They would prefer to have the Chairmanships given to country Democrate, if they can find competent and experienced men.

Democrats, if they can find competent and ex-perienced men.

Of the 31 Senators, 17 have served before in the Senate, and 19 in the Assembly. Sixty-nine of the 128 Assemblymen have served before. The official list of members is out to-day, which shows 16 Democrats, 14 Republi-cans, I Independent Republican, and I vacancy in the Senate; and 67 Democrats and 61 Re-publicans in the Assembly. There are only three Republicans from New York city, Odair of the Twenty-second district being put down as a Democrat.

at a Democrat.

The only change in the Governor's office staff is the stongrapher, M. L. York, who has been Gov. Flower's efficient Secretary for several years, taking the place of Stongrapher Birmingham, who goes to Washington with Senator Hill. The Republicans, will renominate their old candidates, Gen. James William Husted for Speaker. Chickering for Clerk, saas H. Smith of Peekskill for Stongrapher. Capt James Manville of the Dean Richmond for Sergeant-at-Arms, and the old officers of the Senate, with the exception of J. Sloat Fassett, who is not a member of the present Senate.

WHY "PUCK" WAS EXCLUDED.

Trustee Abboit Explains Why Certain Pa-Boston, Jan. 2.-There has been so much criticism of the action of the Boston Public Library trustees in excluding Puck from the library periodical list that the Board feels ealled upon to make some explanation, and Mr. Abbott gives these reasons for the Board's

"The children form the great majority of the readers of both Puck and Judge. The flock in here after school to look at these big red, white, and blue pictures, and the effect is not the best. Judge will be dropped for the same reason when the subscription now paid for expires. It is the caricatures of men holding the highest positions in this country, and that children do not know how to make allowances for. These men are not wholly bad, but the children are ea ily convinced by these pictures that they are. We have reduced the age for persons frequenting the library to twelve years. It is they young people principally who come to read these two papers, and, as the library is an educational jestitution, we thought it was not the best thing to supply themwith So, you see, it is not simily because they are humorous papers that we have cut them off. Of course we make mislakes, like everylody else, and it is possible we have saide one in this case, but the trustees used their best judgment."
